It is understandable why fashion designers need to keep things in their imagination and create clothes that look something but are hardly wearable. They are guided by the desire to attract the public attention in their creations, but this doesn't necessarily mean that they are intended to brighten up the everyday life of the people. Fashion is a mere trend and an interesting aspect of present fashion world. It is not a mere accessory when the whole city suddenly falls in love with a certain look. The clothes worn around in terms of all shades and hues of this particular color.

Everyone tries to put on as much pieces of clothes of this very color as possible, without taking into the consideration the fact that various shades of one color do not usually go together. What is crucial in their presentation is matching along with the fashion. Accessories work out generally as an unnecessary. Until the recent times it was commonly accepted that the shoes and the bag should be matching.
