In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry changed through more than just styles and colours, not only the way people dress but also trends in hair, body, shoes, watches, phones and people's overall attitudes. In the 21st century people don't only wear clothes, they are a symbol of the whole attitude of a generation, and fashion is not just a way of dressing, it is a way of life. And the biggest challenge for fashion designers is not just to design clothes, but to design a way of life. The most fashion is not what is made of, it is the quality of the materials and the way they are used. The power they hold, the way they are worn, the way they are used, the way they are used for the comfort, health and safety of the people who wear them. The world is changing, and the way we dress is changing with it.
