The angel from the east

With love and compassion they often found the ones we needed the most and we knew, a light was a requirement of the one walking, we remembered by their bright smiles, they had returned for just a moment. They went back home, with pictures in their hearts and stories in their eyes.

ANGEL FROM
the east

"All have a soul and a conscience. This woman has one of the most compelling stories I've ever seen. And it's a story that's been told in many ways, but never before. Angel was there, they had assumed that just a legend." They want her to know, and to know in their hearts and stories in their lives.

BRIGHTENING

the night sky

The colors and patterns of the night sky are a beautiful sight to behold. They are a reminder of the vastness of the universe and the beauty of the world we live in. They are a source of inspiration and a source of joy. They are a reminder that there is always something new to discover and something new to learn.

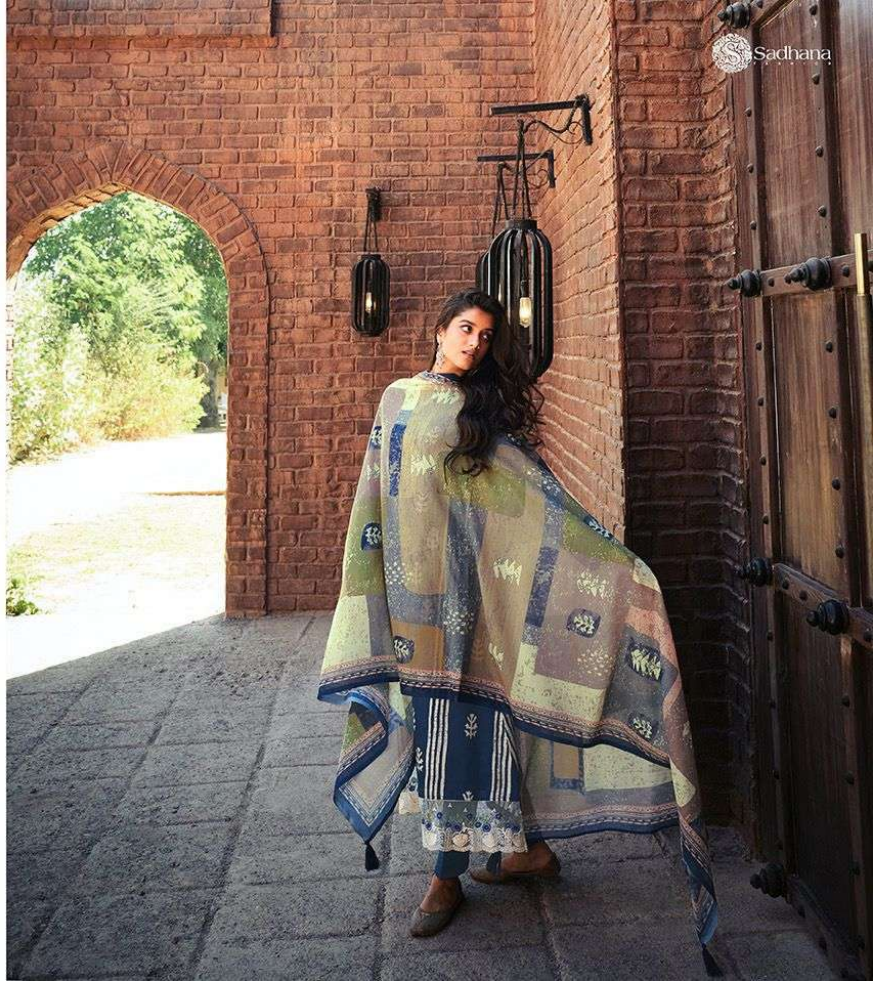

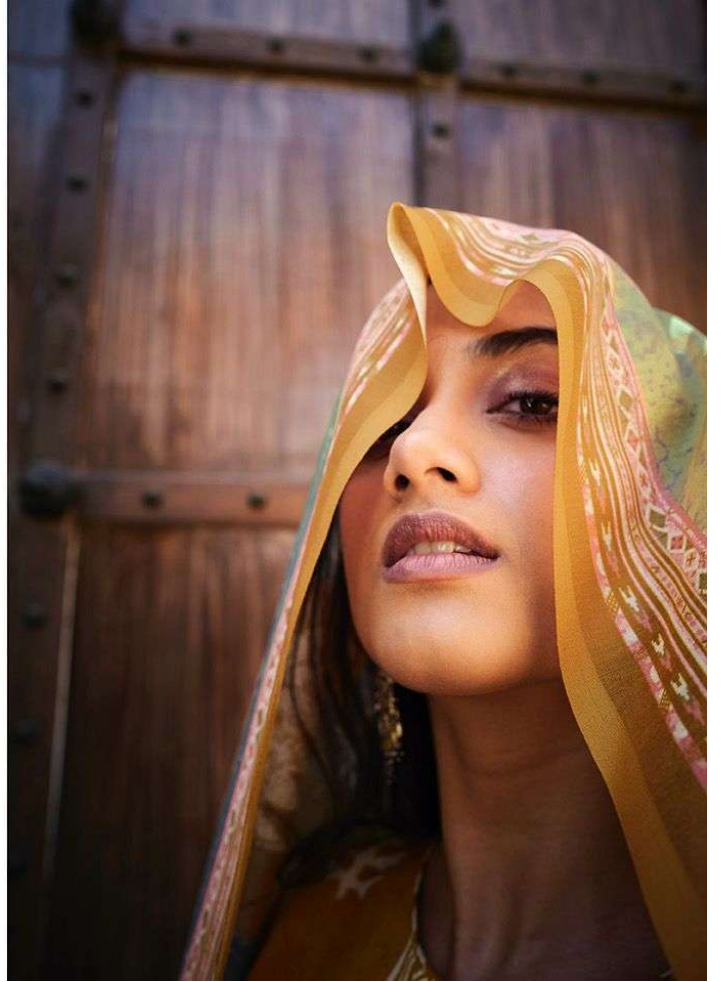

SONGS OF

divinity

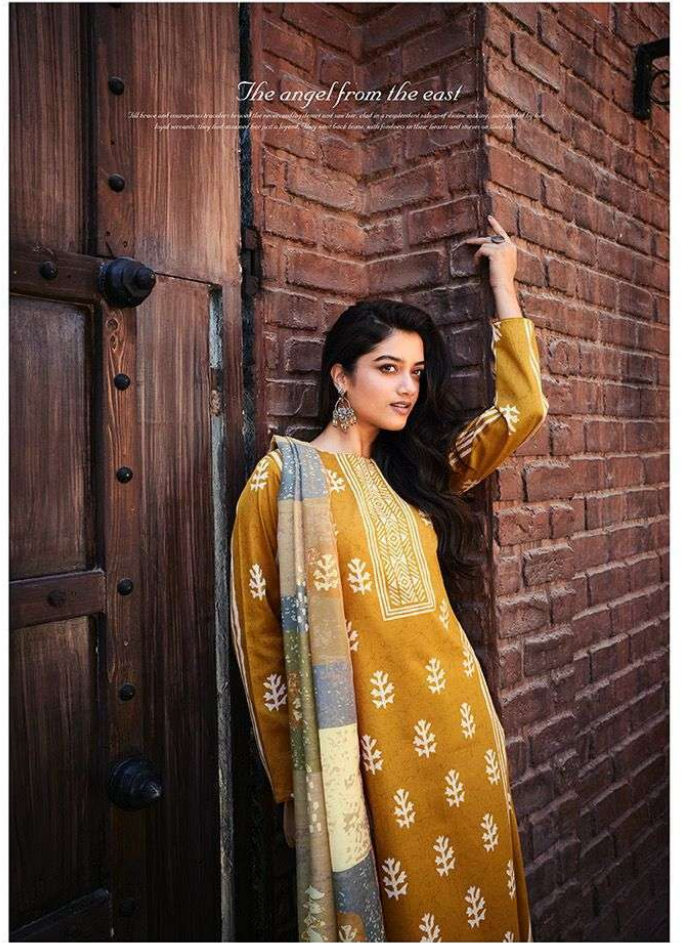

They surround her and look upon her in awe, as if she's not mortal but a miracle. Her dream are heard and her chosen answer. And they sing their song, in that language to come from all day of their destiny.

The angel from the east

Full bloom and unopened buds are scattered all over the land and we have shed in a grandstand of light, some making a path for the angel women, they are scattered here for a long time, with flowers in their hearts and the wind in their hair.

 Sadhana

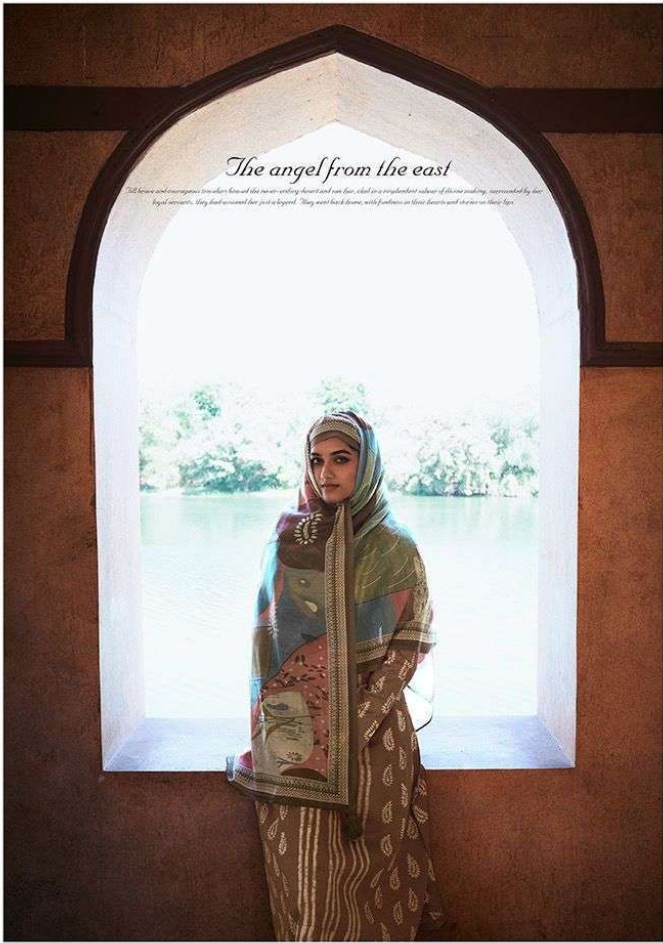

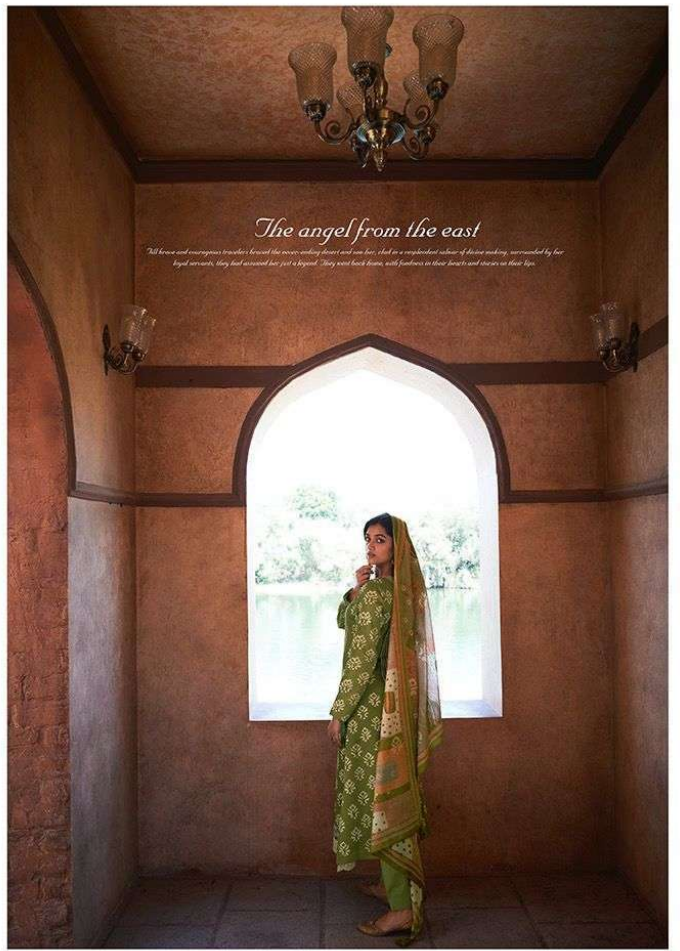

The angel from the east

*She has a soft, angelic smile that makes her eyes shine like stars and her hair like a waterfall.
Her beauty is not just in her face, but in her soul.
She is a true angel from the east.*

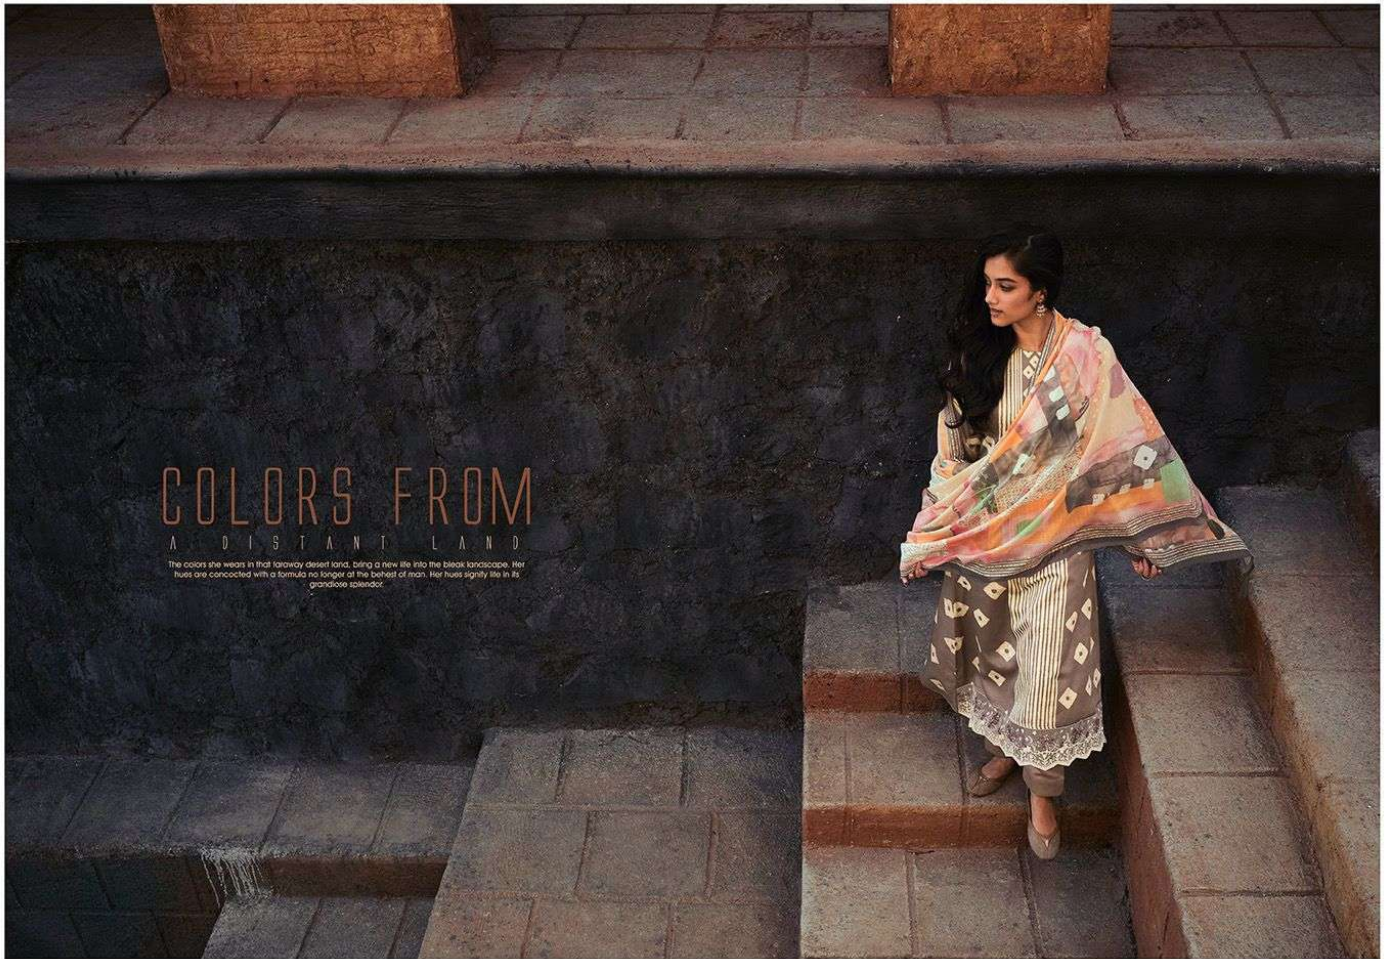

The angel from the east

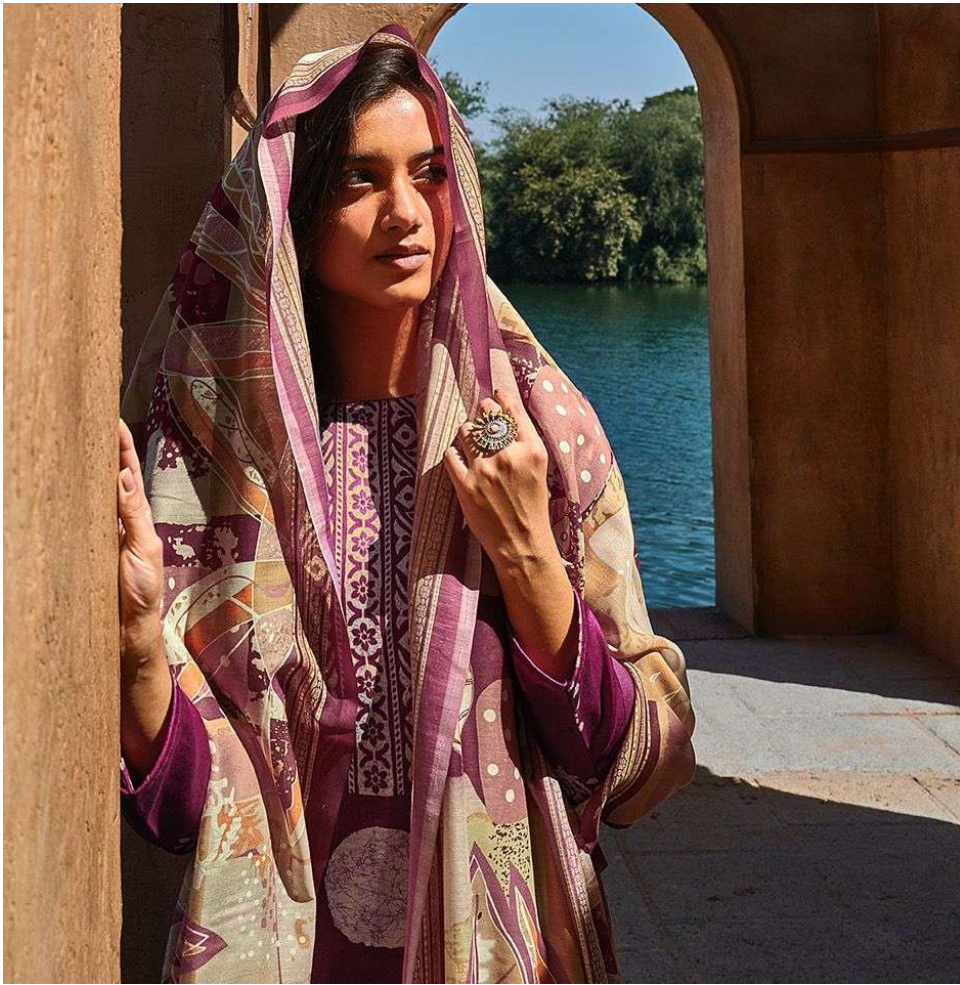

Till time and mountains tremble, beyond the ever-rolling dunes and sea, they stand in a splendid silence of divine radiance, surrounded by four loyal servants, they had ascended but just a beyond. They were back there, with fairness on their faces and stars on their lips.

COLORS FROM

A DISTANT LAND

The colors she wears in that faraway desert land, bring a new life into the bleak landscape. Her hues are concocted with a formula no longer at the behest of man. Her hues signify life in its grandiose splendor.

 Sadhana

The angel from the east

She has a wild imagination that she lives in a world that is not real but she, still as a real person, makes of the world making, surrounded by her imagination, things that are not like yours or mine. They are the things, only for her, in her dreams and in her eyes.

LIFE EVOLVES

from sand

Old times and memories together formed the great making of our sand and the, still in a perpetual state of being making, surrounded by their loyal servants, they did around the just to beyond. They were the old times, with friends in their hearts and names in their eyes.

*"All houses and courtyards
remember toward the sun,
on windy shores and on bars,
that in a forgotten corner of the world, surrounded by her loyal servants, they had remained but just a legend.
They went back home with kindness in their hearts and shame on their lips."*
