Brightening
the night sky

Many years ago I had a vision of a woman who would be remembered for her grace and elegance. And then I realized that she had to have the power to reflect and glorify to others. You see a woman is not just a person, she is a reflection of her own soul. And it is in the way she carries herself that she truly shines. And it is in the way she carries herself that she truly shines. And it is in the way she carries herself that she truly shines.

In the sea of the mundane, you stand alone, a paragon of life in an otherwise everyday world. A vision of you, clad in our marvellous creations tells the story of an island surrounded by the vast and jealous oceans, ever trying to chip at your beauty, but failing everytime. You stand unimpeded, untouched and unblemished.

A ballad of ancient grace

Many years pass until he remembers you, in your son's crafted out of mirth and happiness. And these reflections cause him to stop, to ponder to reflect and ultimately to rejoice. Your son is magic, it is perfection, it opens the floodgates of memories waiting to envelop him in absolute glee. And at the same time he despairs, because the desire to see you is endless and boundless.
