A woman is the central figure, dressed in a vibrant blue and red sari with a gold border and a repeating geometric pattern. She is adorned with extensive gold jewelry, including a large necklace, multiple bangles, and a traditional headpiece. She stands in a temple setting, with a large, ornate stone pillar and a statue of a warrior holding a sword in the background. The architecture is highly detailed with carvings. The lighting is warm, highlighting the textures of the fabric and the intricate details of the jewelry and surroundings.
