A woman with long, wavy brown hair is the central figure, wearing a vibrant magenta kurta with a vertical line of intricate gold and red embroidery down the center and a wide, matching magenta hem. A long, flowing navy blue shawl is draped over her left shoulder, extending to the floor. She is also wearing magenta trousers and silver high-heeled sandals with a wide, jeweled strap. The background features a dark brown wall with a complex, repeating geometric pattern. To the left, a large, ornate crystal chandelier hangs from the ceiling. In the foreground, there are several potted plants with red and white flowers. The overall lighting is soft and focused on the woman.
