.....दर नारी की पहेचान

Two women are standing in a courtyard with traditional Indian architecture. The woman on the left is wearing a bright yellow kurta with a colorful floral pattern and a matching yellow dupatta. The woman on the right is wearing a green and black kurta with a leaf pattern and a long, dark dupatta with a green floral border. They are both smiling and looking towards the camera. The background features a yellow building with arched windows and a courtyard with a fountain and a basket of flowers.
