THE AJARAKH

Ajarakh is a traditional Indian textile, known for its intricate geometric patterns. It is a type of saree that is popular in the state of Rajasthan, India. The saree is made of cotton and is characterized by its bold, zigzag patterns in shades of green, gold, and brown. The patterns are created using a traditional handloom technique. The saree is often worn with a matching blouse and is a popular choice for traditional Indian attire. It is also a popular choice for wedding and festival wear. The saree is known for its durability and is often passed down from generation to generation. It is a beautiful and unique piece of Indian heritage.
