The image shows a detailed view of a traditional Indian outfit. The main garment is a lehenga in a rich brown color, heavily embellished with intricate gold embroidery. The embroidery includes floral motifs, paisley patterns, and vertical bands of decorative stitching. A sheer, light-colored dupatta is draped over the lehenga, featuring a wide, ornate border with gold and brown embroidery. Small, round, gold-toned buttons are visible, securing the dupatta to the lehenga at several points. The overall aesthetic is one of elegance and traditional craftsmanship.
