Top: Crafted in pure muslin with digital prints, the kurta features a refined silhouette highlighted by organza thread arch detailing along the neckline and sleeves. The daaman is finished with delicate organza thread arches and floral resham embroidery, accented with tiny floral motifs running gracefully through the centre.

Bottom: Paired with pure muslin heavy fabric bottoms, offering comfort with a structured fall.

Dupatta: A statement pure modal dupatta, detailed with an organza thread arches border, adding an ethereal finish to the ensemble.

A close-up photograph of two women's hands clasped together. They are wearing traditional Indian clothing with intricate geometric and floral patterns in shades of blue, grey, and white. The background is softly blurred, showing a wooden railing.
