A woman with long dark hair is standing in a lush garden. She is wearing a long-sleeved, floor-length purple dress with a V-neckline. The dress features large, vibrant pink floral prints and intricate gold and black geometric patterns. A long, matching purple scarf with the same patterns is draped over her left arm and extends to the ground. She is also wearing a necklace with a large white pendant and a ring on her finger. The background is a blurred garden with a stone wall, a small pond, and various green plants.
