

The image displays a piece of bright blue fabric with a subtle, natural texture. It is adorned with delicate embroidery in gold and white threads. The design features a winding vine with small, five-petaled flowers and leaves, running along the edge of the fabric. The fabric is laid out on a light-colored surface, and its folds and creases are visible, giving it a sense of depth and movement. A white, rounded rectangular box is superimposed on the right side of the fabric, containing the text 'For sleeves' in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

For sleeves
