A photograph of two women in traditional Indian attire, framed within a dark green border. The woman on the left is wearing a pink kurta and matching pink trousers, with a pink dupatta featuring intricate white and gold embroidery. She is wearing sunglasses and has her hand on the shoulder of the woman next to her. The woman on the right is wearing a light green kurta and matching light green trousers, with a light green dupatta featuring intricate white and gold embroidery. She is also wearing sunglasses. In the background, there are large brown ceramic pots and a building with a balcony. At the bottom of the frame, there is a small decorative lantern.

"Fashion is only the attempt to realize art in living forms and social intercourse." D.4182

Rivaai

"Don't be into trends. Don't make fashion own you, but you decide what you are, what you want to express by the way you dress and the way to live."

D.4187

"The best things in life are free. The second best are very expensive." D.4186
